As a young high school athlete, leadership, determination, versatility, and teamwork were inherent in my pursuit to win. Many people of Maui noticed these qualities in me, and often the press wrote about my athleticism and personal character. I was destined to be a leader on and off the field. The year before I graduated, I had already planned to enlist in the military and attend college. I imagined that someday I would be in a position to return home to help the people of Maui. In reminiscing looking at my scrapbook, I found an article (written 24 years ago) that quoted me saying that exact statement.

After graduating from St. Anthony High School in 1983, I enlisted in the military, attended college, and became a commercial truck driver. Although, I have been away, and had my share of ups and downs, my passion to help the people of Maui has always been my dream. I am ready for the challenge and my life experiences have taught me to be the man I set out to be so long ago. I have learned a great deal about survival, faith, redemption, and most of all what my priorities are. I found that what matters most of all is love, the love of my family, the love of Maui, and the love and truthfulness of being me. My destiny is to become the Mayor of Maui County. As Mayor, I will demonstrate my leadership and passion to bring positive changes.
